Board Notes November 20, 2023

Executive Director Thoughts: Last week we released a tentative agenda for the National Educator Shortage Summit scheduled for February 29-March 1 in Phoenix, AZ. The work from this continued collaborative project with various educator stakeholder groups can be seen through the development of the 5 Shifts to Address the Educator Shortage and <https://www.edshortage.org/> where we are highlighting promising practices under each Shift. While attending state conferences this past month I focused on Shift 4: Strengthen educators' sense of purpose, belonging and connection. Through our Gather Voices platform, I was able to capture videos of members sharing what makes work meaningful and stories of their favorite educator. Our goal is to continue the work of putting a national spotlight on the importance of our educators and share the rewards and impact of being an educator.

Federal Advocacy Liaison: We continue collecting state "Federal Advocacy Liaisons" from State Affiliates. The goal of this position is to bring back any information from the legislative committee to state affiliates. In addition, plans are in the works to host a virtual Advocacy Summit where we would discuss national data on key issues affecting school personnel state legislation such as quality prep programs, competitive pay and retention.

HCLE Certification Opportunities: The next cohort for the Executive Human Capital Leader in Education (eHCLE) certification will begin January of 2024. The registration deadline is December 25. The next Professional Human Capital Leader in Education (pHCLE) virtual cohort is scheduled for January and TASP (Texas) is hosting a blended cohort in conjunction with their Winter Conference December 6-7. Don't forget to check out the new DEI Micro-credential as well. For more information go to: <https://www.aaspa.org/hcle-certification>.

Member Forum "AASPA Atlas": This forum is an excellent place to post questions, learn about new strategies and network with other AASPA members. Members will be automatically added to groups within the forum. Members can set up their own notifications and customize their engagement. We will also be offering our state affiliates an opportunity to set up their own group within the forum as well. Contact morgan@aaspa.org for more information.
