American Association of School Personnel Administrators | Est. 1938

Board Notes September 11, 2023

Executive Director Thoughts: Last week AASPA launched our new Searchable Business Directory at: <https://www.aaspa.org/business-partner-directory>. I don't know about you, but many times it is difficult to keep track of the all of the services available to school personnel administrators. I have always maintained that AASPA's Business Partners are some of the most dedicated servants to our field and innovation and change is always around the corner. Hopefully by providing members an opportunity to search various businesses with categories such as: Applicant Tracking, Employee Engagement, Experience Verification, Financial Management or even Leadership Training, just to name a few, this will assist in making the best data driven decisions when looking for that extra level of engagement.

Virtual State Leaders Retreat: Don't forget to join us virtually this week, Wednesday, September 13th 8:30 am to 1:00 pm CT. Topics will include meeting planning, marketing, sponsorship and new state affiliate benefits. This event is free. The zoom link to attend is: <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/89450362437>
